In Honour of

Helping great people do great things...

This In Honour donation is providing a “gift of leadership” for generations to come.

The Ontario 4-H Foundation, established in 1998 as a registered charity, provides the opportunity for individuals, families and organizations to support the youth leadership and volunteer development programs of 4-H Ontario.

Grants from the endowment funds are allocated into four specific funding Pillars of the 4-H Ontario program each year. They are:

1. Leadership access
2. Program development
3. Local 4-H association empowerment
4. Strategic initiatives

The goal of the Foundation is to achieve the growth and effective management of sponsorship and endowment funds to support 4-H Ontario’s vision and strategic plan.

4-H Ontario’s Vision

“We will be recognized for delivering quality, innovative and sustainable leadership and life skill programs for youth and volunteers which benefit the citizens and communities in which they live”.
