

The Wellington County Historical Society
invites you to enter its
2012 Writing Contest

This year's topic is:

My School Days

Tell us about your school experiences --- perhaps your first day or a favourite subject, a memorable experience or schoolmates, an influential teacher or lessons learned... You decide the focus of your essay.

Details:

The competition is open to all ages.

The essay should be 500 to 2000 words in length.

Typed and double spaced essays are preferred but handwritten entries are acceptable.

Include your name, full address and telephone number on a separate sheet.

Winners will be announced at the Annual General Meeting on June 4, 2012 at which time awards will be presented in both youth and adult categories.

All entries become the property of the Wellington County Historical Society and will be stored at the Wellington County Archives for all to enjoy.

Deadline for receipt of entries: April 17, 2012
